

New Kiwanians

Our Newest Kiwanians: March 3 President Bill and the Membership Committee introduced and inducted James Timlin and Pat Moore. If you haven't met them yet, introduce yourself and welcome them to our club. As of this printing, our active and senior membership roster consists of 31 members.

Thank you to our speaker, Susan Gawley who filled us in on the job that a Parole Officer does. Not only does she supervise parolees, she takes part in psychological services that extend to such offenders. Her demanding job keeps her busy as she works out of the Woodstock office. A rather startling statistic that 25 to 30 percent of cases involve domestic disputes leads us to rethink current headlines in our newspapers.

Auction 2005

Our upcoming auction, in cooperation with Trinity United church, demands our involvement at this time. Our fundraising committee asks all of us to consider making a donation to the important fund raiser. If you don't have an item to donate to the day, you might consider purchasing something that could be auctioned. Last year, we were successful in raising over four thousand dollars to add to our funds that support our community work. Let's do it again.
